

FIX IT

HEALTHCARE AT THE TIPPING POINT

Film Screening: "Fix It"

Wednesday January 29
Parasol Room 6:30 PM
2100 Ridge Ave
Evanston Civic Center

Our powerful documentary reaches across the political and ideological divide. It makes the case for business leaders to confront the problems they face head-on and to support major healthcare reform.

PANELISTS

Stelios Valavanis

Stelios Valavanis is founder and CEO of the cybersecurity firm onShore Security. Founded in 1991, at the dawn of the internet age, the company audits and reviews traffic to identify issues that require immediate response. onShore has seen health insurance cost increases as high as 39% year to year. Claims are often problematic leading to unhappy employees, even with the best networks.

David Borris

David Borris owns Hel's Kitchen Catering in Northbrook, which he opened in 1985 with his wife Cari, as a small, homemade carry out food store in Highland Park. David is an outspoken critic of the burden small businesses are forced to carry in today's health care market. David is also active throughout the North Shore and greater Chicagoland area on matters relating to small business and its critical role in healthy communities as well as issues revolving around economic & social justice.

Kathryn Kaintz

Kathryn, originally from St. Louis, MO, holds a BSN from Jefferson University in Philadelphia and a BA in Anthropology and Public Health from Tulane University in New Orleans. She currently works as a community health nurse on the south and southwest sides of Chicago with a particular interest in chronic disease education and management. She advocates everyday for clients within our overly complex and inequitable healthcare system and is committed to joining the movement towards single payer healthcare.

Peter Gann

Dr. Gann has been a member of Physicians for a National Health Program for over 20 years, and is a member of the Steering Committee for the Illinois chapter of PNHP. He is currently a Professor in the Department of Pathology at the University of Illinois at Chicago College of Medicine, where he teaches and conducts research on cancer prevention and public health.
